Literacy Courses
Teaching ESL students in mainstream classrooms
How Language Works: Success in Literacy Skill Learning
Teaching ESL: New Arrivals
Responding to Abuse and Neglect: Education and care training
All professionals and volunteers working with children are required to undertake a one-day CYFS/DECD approved course. This training needs to be updated every three years. The Teachers Registration Board requires proof of Responding to Abuse and Neglect training for registration as a teacher. CEASA offers a full day training course.
Keeping Safe Child Protection Curriculum
It is important that all educators have accessed the professional learning program that supports the implementation of the materials before delivering the Keeping Safe Curriculum.
For more information, to access a registration form and schedule of dates for the above courses, go to the CEASA website www.ceasa.asn.au or phone the CEASA office.
